The Minor in French Language is intended primarily for students who wish to attain a high level of communicative ability (C1 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages) for use in professional or academic contexts.

- Students with credit for secondary-school French 12 may be exempted from FREN201 and FREN202.
- Students starting at an introductory level must complete the requirements leading to FREN 201 before taking the courses required for the Minor.
- This program is not available for native speakers of French and for students whose point of entry is FREN 401 or higher.
